Scott Joint Use supporters rally

By Mike Myers
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — The first step toward joint civilian-military use of Scott Air Force Base is buried in the fine print of a funding bill recently passed by the U.S. Congress.

That's what U.S. Rep. Jerry Costello, D-Belleville, told people gathered at the Eagles Hall for a rally supporting Scott Joint Use. During the course of the evening, about 500 people showed up to show their support, at $10 a pop, for the concept of joint use.

Costello said two air bases will be looked at for possible joint use during the next two fiscal years. Scott, he said, will be one of those two and probably the first.

"There is a good chance Scott can become the model of joint use for the country," he said.

Costello said transportation, especially air transportation, is the most important factor in the future economic development of the region.

"You have to be able to move people and products in and out of the region," Costello said. "The economy has to prosper so there will be jobs for our children and grandchildren."

"It's good for Scott Air Base, it's good for St. Clair County, it's good for the region."

1994 completion date likely for MESD repair

By Dennis Grubaugh
Managing editor

GRANITE CITY — Revamp of the local flood protection system probably won't be completed until fiscal year 1994, according to a local official.

But work is proceeding pretty much the way it was expected to, said Walter "Shang" Greathouse, president of the Metro East Sanitary District.

Greathouse reported on the progress of the multi-million-dollar project for business and community leaders during a Rotary Prayer Breakfast at Charlie's Restaurant on Wednesday.

Another speaker, Joe Effertz, project manager with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, said the work is being done "in three pieces." The first is basically done — preparing specifications and replacing or repairing small gravity drains in East St. Louis.

The second will be mainline levee protection and the third will be general design and repair, including pump stations.

Arabia bound? Local reservists' unit called to active duty

GRANITE CITY — Imagine trying to eat your lunch with a few of your buddies when in comes a horde of strangers to take your picture and ask how it feels to be going to the Middle East.

That's what happened Thursday at the Charles Melvin Price Support Center to a dozen reservists of the 858th Maintenance Detachment. They had been notified Monday to report for 90 days of active duty, effective Thursday.

Included in the St. Louis-based unit are Spec. 4 Charlene Arakaki, 28, of Granite City, and Spec. 4 Brandon Fletcher, 20, of Madison.

The 858th Detachment is a repair unit that installs and maintains the electronic equipment that encodes and decodes messages, said Mark Yehling, a reservist and spokesman.

The unit is commanded by Chief Warrant Officer Louise A. Leaser. The detachment is scheduled to depart for Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., today (Sunday).

Arakaki leaves behind in Granite City her husband, Allan, and their 4-year-old son, Aaron.

"I'm not really nervous about it because I don't know for sure where we are going yet," Arakaki said. There are strong hints, others said, that it will be Saudi Arabia.

She thinks the experience will be exciting for awhile, even though she will miss her family.

Madison native Brandon Fletcher has a message for his family: "I'm going to be all right; I'm coming back in a few months."

Fletcher has a brother, Bertrand, grandparents

House fire kills man

By Mike Myers
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — A 33-year-old man died from carbon-monoxide poisoning in an early morning fire Friday that damaged two houses.

The body of Charles F. Constant was found by firefighters shortly after they were called at 6:30 a.m. to a fire at his house in the 2400 block of Edwards Street. The body was reportedly lying face down on the floor in a front room on the first floor of his two-story house. The floor was reportedly burned through and partially collapsed.

Officials first believed the cause of the fire was suspicious in nature. However, according to a press release issued Friday night by the Police Department, "after an extensive investigation by the Granite City Police Department in cooperation with the Granite City Fire Department, the cause of the fatal fire has been ruled accidental. Through lab analysis and ... interviews, the possibility of foul play has been eliminated."

Police Chief Don Knight said his investigators and members of the Illinois Arson Investigation team spent much of the day at the scene.

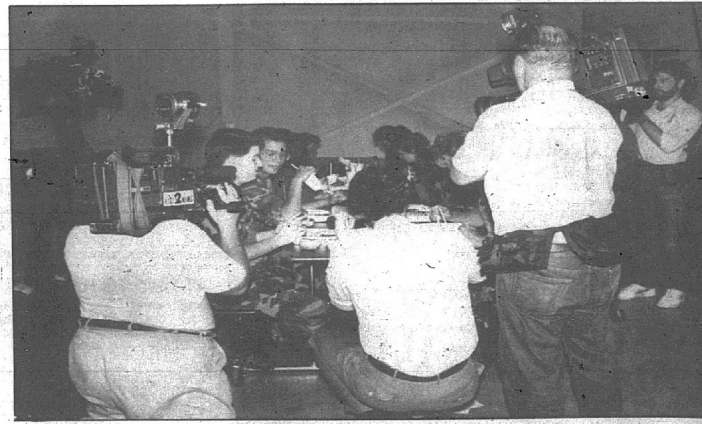

Madison County Coroner Dallas Burke said an autopsy performed late Friday showed no apparent signs of trauma, and tests showed a very high level of carbon monoxide in the body.

"He was definitely alive during the fire," she said.

Burke said the badly-burned body was positively identified using both fingerprints and dental records. She said further toxicology tests, including those for drugs and alcohol, were performed, but the results will not be available until later this week.

The fire was reportedly limited to the front part of Constant's house, but spread into the roof of an unoccupied house next door. According to Fire Chief Jerry Wallace, the fire in the second house got into and spread through the interior of the roof joists. The neighboring house was once occupied by a family named Wilkinson who had since moved, a resident of the East Granite neighbor and his father in Madison. His mother lives in Tennessee.

The 858th was to be "locked in" Saturday at 7 a.m. until leaving sometime Sunday morning for Fort Leonard Wood.

The unit then will complete detailed preparations and participate in final training. After that, the reservists will go on to their ultimate assignment; the timing will depend on when transportation can be scheduled.

COLLINSVILLE — The Collinsville convention authority needs some answers to questions about a state grant program before deciding if it still wants to be involved with the proposed Mid-America Aquacenter, according to Richard Mark.

The authority is seeking to set up a meeting with Mark Frech, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, to ask about the grant program that would pay the cost of an Aquacenter feasibility study.

Authority member Vic Bette said Friday morning that a meeting with Frech was tentatively scheduled for either Tuesday or Wednesday.

Confirmation of that meeting was expected by Monday, he added.

The board of the Mid-America Aquacenter voted Wednesday that the facility should be near Interstate 265 and the Collinsville hospitality district, which appears to give Collinsville the edge over Pontoon Beach as the Aquacenter's site, although the exact location is still a mystery.

Mark is a member of the authority and chairs its committee that deals with the Aquacenter proposal.

The Department of Conservation has said that a grant of up to $450,000 could be available for the study.

The Aquacenter has been proposed for the Collinsville-Pontoon Beach area. It would cost an estimated $40 million to $50 million, but could attract close to 900,000 visitors per year, according to proponents.

Mark said the authority needs answers from Frech.

Taken were a billiards cue, a fishing rod and reel, an emergency medical technician's first-aid kit and an in-dash stereo.

St. Elizabeth's car seats for infants and toddlers, too

The nurses in the OB (Obstetrics) Department at St. Elizabeth Medical Center have posted a newspaper clipping on the bulletin board in their lounge. The clipping lists the names of 11 people ticketed by the Fairview Heights Police Department in one week.

The violation could be a deadly one for children because all 11 motorists were ticketed for child-restraint violations. Every year, thousands of children are injured or killed because they are not placed in car seats, even though it is the law in all 50 states.

As a service to the community, the OB Department (798-3040) has been offering infant car seat rentals since last October. Now, OB also will be offering rentals of toddler car seats for SEMC patients, associates and the community.

"We are happy to be able to offer these car seats to people in our community," said Pat Schradler, OB supervisor.

The Illinois Department of Transportation has provided SEMC with funding for 100 infant and 48 toddler car seats. "Through a state grant, we have been able to offer this service for a year now," Schradler said. "If we can save one child's life, it's worth it."

The rental fee for either an infant or toddler car seat is $5, with a $15 deposit.

Infant car seats may be rented for up to six months, and the toddler seats for up to one year.

"This is a great opportunity for those who can't afford to buy a car seat, or for those who may not have children all of the time. For instance, grandparents may want to rent a car seat for the weekend while they keep their grandchild," Schradler said.

"Our main concern is that the child is protected. There is nothing worse than the thought of a child being hurtled against a car dashboard or window because he or she wasn't wearing a belt or riding in a safety seat."

According to information published by the Illinois Department of Transportation, in a traffic accident a 10-pound child riding in a car traveling 30 mph is thrown forward at a force of 300 pounds.

SEMC's OB, Home Health, Social Work and Emergency Room departments will be working together to ensure those who need to rent an infant or toddler car seat are aware of the program.

Dr. Gould to talk to Ostomy Group

The Ostomy Support Group will be holding its September meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 25, at 2 p.m. in Pascal Hall on the ground floor of St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Dr. Ronald Gould, a specialist in internal medicine and gastroenterology, will discuss problems concerning the digestive system.

Gould is a member of the medical staff at SEMC. Doctors of internal medicine, or internists, specialize in the diagnosis and treatment of chronic illnesses and acute diseases of adults, except for those conditions that require a surgeon or obstetrician.

The Ostomy Support Group is designed to provide fellowship among people who share a common experience and can provide support to others. It is open to anyone who has had a colostomy, ileostomy or urostomy. Family and friends, as well as those with ostomies, are encouraged to attend.

Earlier certification for heat bill aid in county

EDWARDSVILLE — Madison County residents who want to receive assistance in paying their heating bills must have their eligibility certified at an earlier time this year.

The certification periods were moved up to make the process run more smoothly, according to Rosshelle Williams, coordinator of the program in Madison County. Previously, no applications were taken before Nov. 1.

Households on what is called the "12 percent plan" must be recertified before Oct. 26. (Recertification began Sept. 1.) Those households pay 12 percent of their incomes for energy.

Starting Oct. 1, elderly and handicapped residents can seek recertification.

Those not in any of those categories can apply in November. Last year, the entire process started in November, said Williams, who works for the Madison County Community Development Office.

Her office administers the federal money allocated for the program. The anticipated funding of slightly more than $1 million is comparable to last year's total, Williams said.

Persons with questions may call 692-6200, extension 5105, or the state energy hot line at 1-800-252-8643.

Co-op Extension funding outlined

The University of Illinois Board of Trustees has just received a funding proposal to revitalize the Cooperative Extension Service.

The proposal calls for an $8-million increase in state support to the Extension Service to stabilize its fiscal base, continue its statewide presence and use available federal funding for critical programs that address priority needs.

CES provides rural and urban Illinoisians with programs on environmental quality, agriculture, youth development, family issues, nutrition, and community and economic development.

CES developed the proposal to help meet the needs of the state in the face of dwindling federal resources. CES lost more than $5 million in federal-funded purchasing power during the 1980s and compounded by relatively low levels of combined county and state support, faces another $6 million loss by the end of this decade.

A series of hearings was held around the state in June regarding Extension's future.

W.R. Gomes, dean of the U. of I. College of Agriculture, said that if the proposal is funded, Extension will be able to meet the full range of its mission in a way more consistent with what the public wants.

Journalist to speak at forum for women

By Dawn Adams Huffman
Staff writer

Judy Woodruff, anchorwoman on the "MacNeil/Lehrer News Hour" and host of the weekly documentary series "Frontline with Judy Woodruff," will be the keynote speaker at a women's forum today, Sept. 23, at St. John's Mercy Medical Center.

"Celebrating Womanhood" will run from noon to 4:30 p.m. at the hospital's Von Gontard Conference Center. The hospital is at 615 S. New Basins Road.

Many women's forums focus on how to cope with both a career and family, but today's event will teach women how to celebrate and explore their womanhood.

"Because of the roles women play in child-rearing and working, they have to juggle priorities," said Sister Jan Hayes, director of communications of the Sisters of Mercy St. Louis Province. "This gives women a more global-minded look at the world."

Woodruff will discuss "How Women See the World" and note what women leaders have in common.

University City Councilwoman Betty Thompson will cite the need for women in community service.

Also speaking at the event are Sister Mary Roch Rocklage, chief executive officer at Sisters of Mercy Health System; Queen Fowler, executive director of pupil personnel services for St. Louis Public Schools; Richard Johnson, a doctor from the Department of Family Practice at St. John's Mercy Medical Center; and Kathleen Keller Passanisi, founder of New Perspectives.

Admission to the event is free so that women of all income levels can attend.

"Men can learn just as much from the forum as women," Hayes said. "Many women plan to bring their fathers, sons and husbands."

Mitchell gardener yields some weighty tomatoes

Maxine Duniphan covers the Mitchell area for the Press-Record/Journal. She can be contacted at 931-2714.

Most local tomato growers will agree that this year has been a difficult one to grow tomatoes. But Shirley Jarvis of Paul Drive has beat the odds with her back yard garden.

Last week she was surprised when she found three tomatoes in her garden larger than she had ever grown. She took them to the local quick shop to be weighed. The largest weighed 1½ pounds. The other two weighed 1¼ pounds respectively. These were quite large considering that the average tomato on the grocery shelf weighs a quarter to a half pound.

Jarvis said that earlier in the spring she attended a session on "The Joys of Growing Your Own Garden" taught by Wilma Hancock, with the Cooperative Extension Service through the University of Illinois.

"Don't know if that helped," she said with a smile, "but it sure didn't hurt."

Philip and Helen Hickam of East Chain of Rocks Road traveled to Barkley Lake in Kentucky during a recent weekend, where they met Hickam's brother-in-law and sister, Tom and Mildred Lily of Alto Pass, Ill., who had arrived two weeks earlier.

The group also was joined by Philip and Helen's brother, John Hickam of Hannibal, Mo., and their two sisters, Verina Wilkerson and her husband, Bill, of Jonesboro, Ark., and Connie Cottrell and her husband, Carter, of Dover, Tenn.

The weekend campout was spent visiting and enjoying the Lillys' catch of the previous week. Everyone enjoyed a barbecue before breaking camp.

Pearl Turner of Patricia Drive and her sister, Eveleene Davis of

Maxine Duniphan

Cottage Hills, have returned from a 10-day visit to Somerset, Ky.

They visited their mother, Helen Crouch, and their brother, Charlie Crouch.

During their stay, the two sisters and their brother hosted an open house to celebrate Mrs. Crouch's 90th birthday. Prior to her birthday, someone had sent Mrs. Crouch's name and birth date to the local radio station. The station's management presented her with a huge birthday cake and played a song on the radio dedicated to her in honor of her special day.

Flora Mouser of Roberta Drive has returned from an eight-day trip to Houston where she attended graduation ceremonies for the graduates of the Vocational Nursing Program at San Jacinto College on Aug. 25.

Mouser's daughter, Phyllis Campbell was among the 35 graduates and one of the three who remained on the Dean's List throughout the entire program.

While in Texas, Mouser stayed with her daughter and her son-in-law, Sam, and she was present for the birthday celebration of two of her grandchildren.

The Campbells hosted a backyard barbecue for their son, Ed, and daughter, Kim, in honor of their birthdays. Son Michael of New Orleans also joined the family for the festivities.

Jim and Jeri Schieb of Mueller Avenue treated their grandsons, Norman Jr. and Paul Richter, to a trip to the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus at the St. Louis Arena, where the world-renowned Gunter Gebel-Williams was performing.

Williams, who began his career at the end of World War II at the age of 12, is making his "Farewell Tour in the United States."

Clifford and Maxine Duniphan were among the many Granite City area residents who attended the ninth annual reunion for the combined students of four rural Wayne County, Mo., schools.

Three teachers and 70 former students of the now defunct schools of Frye, McGee, Union Hill and Yoken met Sept. 8 at the Wappapello, Mo., Civic Center.

A covered dish dinner was served. There was much visiting and reminiscing as members mingled, visiting with those they had kept in touch with over the years and renewing old acquaintances, with those they had not seen in as many as 50 years in some instances.

The three teachers present began their careers in three different decades. Ninety-year-old Clara Goddard began her career in the early 1920s. Victor Nodel, now 81, began his teaching in the early 1930s, and Roscoe Williams taught in the early 1940s.

Nine of the registered guests ranged in age from 60 to 90 years.

The day's activities ended with lots of hugging, lingering good-byes and some last-minute picture-taking.

Justin Tyler Gibson was born Aug. 12 at the St. Elizabeth Medical Center. He weighed 8 pounds.

He is the son of Heather Miles and David Gibson. His maternal grandparents are Richard and Alice Miles of Mitchell. His paternal grandparents are Kenneth Gibson of Granite City and Connie Gibson of Florissant, Mo.

His great-grandparents are Willard and Bernice Myers of Mitchell and Dorothy Gibson of Granite City.

Doyle and Juanita Barnes of Hills Avenue attended the Lockhart family reunion Sept. 9 at Yeager Lake near Litchfield, Ill.

The group spent the day boating and skiing. At the close of the event a drawing for the attendance prize was held. Dan Lienemann of Granite City was the winner.

Also attending were: William and Doris Bettori, Jeff and Lynn Bettori and children Wayne and Renna Barnes, Elizabeth Barnes, Mike and Lorene Tessoro, Della McClean, and Stacy and Shanna Bettori, all of Edwardsville.

Elza and Lauretta Short, and Karen Smith of Taylors Springs, Ill.

Tom, Kay and Jamie Maniace, Karen Weller, Tammy McClellan, Dee Dee McClellan, Keith Lockhart, Jim Lockhart, Tammy Murphy, Jimmie Murphy, Michelle Murphy, and Frank Hodges, all of St. Louis.

Keith and Olive Short of Griffith, Ind.; Elmer and Ruth Lockhart, Donnie Lockhart, and Dale and Debbie Lockhart from New Douglas, Ill.; Al and Norma Futche, Mt. Olive, Ill.; Debbie and Beth Koveley, and Dale and Denise Walters and family from Livingston, Ill.; Larry and Sue Lessaro, Jordan McDonnell, Tracy Lessaro, and Chris Fulton, all from Troy, Ill.

Both of the last phases are under review either by Corps officials or the Department of the Interior, Eiertz said.

Usually, in projects of this type, there are years of advance planning, but the deteriorating state of MESD facilities forced the government's hand.

"In this case we found ourselves with a mandate to start construction without any particular document that explained just what it was we were supposed to do," Eiertz said. The hard planning didn't begin until after passage of last year's referendum, Eiertz said.

In order to get federal funding, residents of the MESD voted a 25 percent share of the project in February 1989. Progress since then has been slow. Greathouse said the critical point is to realize what must first be done.

"I'm still very anxious to get started, but when you're dealing with the Corps, you're dealing with an outfit that is very bureaucratic," Greathouse said. "Plus we're blessed with an EPA (Environmental Protection Agency) that finds fault with everything we do, which also slows the process down."

Greathouse said the government is now spending $2 million on the work and he is fighting to get another $13 million freed up for ditch cleanout. The latter money is hard to come by because economic justification requires that each dollar spent by the Corps show at least $1 in benefit, Eiertz said.

By next spring residents should be able to see construction on the second phase, Eiertz said. That will include sewage wells and fixing gaps in the levee.

By early next year a contract for 10 large gravity drains will be let. With pump stations part of the third phase, first contract awards will be around next fall, Eiertz said.

Separate from the rehabilitation project but part of the flood program is a massive "dewatering" project that will remove underground water and pump it to the river. The federal government is paying $6 million, the state $1.2 million and the MESD $300,000 of the cost. A total of 60 wells will be built in 57 locations, Greathouse said.

De-watering has been delayed by EPA demands that the removed water be found safe to put back in the river. The first such tests showed the water was not contaminated, Greathouse said, but they took more than six months to complete. Each proposed well must also be checked. The high water table in the area is one of the main concerns of residents' who fear flooding.

Approximately 16 million gallons a day will be pumped out of Madison County and 21 million gallons a day out of St. Clair County by de-watering.

The bad part of de-watering is the high utility costs. MESD already faces electric bills of $400,000 each year, Greathouse said.

Greathouse said the rehab work will happen, no matter how long it takes for the federal purse strings to loosen.

Ironically, if a major flood catastrophe would occur, MESD could get millions of dollars in repair money almost overnight.

There was some controversy over the selection process recently. There were allegations that the process would be manipulated to affect the outcome of the study.

There has been some debate as to whether the Aquacenter should be built on donated land in Pontoon Beach or at some site in or near Collinsville's hospital district.

Rasch has been a reservist for two years. His electrical engineering studies at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will be placed on hold this quarter.

But, Baize acknowledged, he would ultimately have responsibility for naming such a panel.

"I think the real question here is what is in the best long-range (economic) interest for the people of that area. Has this (hotel) fulfilled its economic promise to generate growth? I think it has," Baize said.

Quinn said, "The voters in November will not be voting on a panel — they'll be voting on a candidate with the good judgment to know the difference between public service and self-service."

Baize's offer to appoint a panel to consider the debt restructuring "is like putting perfume on a skunk," Quinn said.

"This loan should not be refinanced a second time and whoever is the treasurer should have the backbone to protect taxpayers and enforce the contract."

"Mr. Baize is putting himself in a conflict of interest that he can't back away from and has shown a serious lack of judgment," Quinn said.

"I think image is the important part," said Larry Reinbeck, chairman of the BAC board. "It (increased enrollment) also shows the hard work on the part of many administrators, faculty and staff here at the college."

While reluctant to draw a comparison with the past, Cipf said, "The college is in a much better position in June 1989, said he believes more and more people are discovering that BAC provides quality education."

Jim Pennekamp, executive director of the leadership council of Southwestern Illinois, cheered the rally. Pennekamp applauded Hagnauer for his regional spirit, saying, Madison County was one of the first to provide funds for the renovation of the Martin Luther King Bridge.

State Rep. Monroe Flinn, D-Cahokia, said the concept of Scott Joint Use has already brought St. Clair and Madison counties and the rest of south-central Illinois together and said the relationship should continue.

Another unit member, Jeff Rasch, 20, of Collinsville, said he had been on alert for about three weeks before getting definite word Monday afternoon.

It was on Aug. 2 that Iraq invaded and captured Kuwait, prompting the U.S. to send a massive troop buildup in Arabia.

Rasch was informed that the active duty would last 180 days or less, that the unit was being instructed to prepare for travel. No exact destination was given, but there were clues: "We'll be in the Persian Gulf area, a desert survival book and a desert sand suit."

Granite City Mayor Van DeCruze also applauded the joint effort for bringing the counties together, and he wants to continue that relationship.

State Rep. Sam Wolf, D-Granite City, said if the region let the Scott Joint Use plan fail, "It would be one of the biggest catastrophic mistakes we will ever make."

The rally, sponsored by the Citizens' Committee for Scott Joint Use, was designed to afford citizens an opportunity to meet and talk with others who think joint use is vital to the area. Persons purchasing tickets automatically became members in the Citizens' Committee.

"Everyone wants to see the project accomplished, but we need to protect our interests," which revolve around the Collinsville convention center, he said. "I think what we need to do is talk face to face." Mark said.

At the request of Eastport Plaza developer Gary Fears and Collinsville Mayor Gene Brumley, the city council voted in June to apply for a study grant.

The authority received a letter from Fredh this month asking for more information as part of the grant process.

The questions concerned the firms that would do work as part of the study, whether the authority could receive money for administrative costs and whether the government would be involved in the project.

Mark said that because of bonding requirements for the convention center, the authority cannot spend any of its money on the Aquacenter project.

Mark said the authority also wants to know who will select the consultant fee paid to Baize by the company, seeking to expand into Illinois, was $7,500 per month.

Baize, contacted in Mount Vernon while on a campaign fly-around, said he believes incumbent Democratic Treasurer Jerry Cosentino has the responsibility for making a decision regarding the request for restructuring of the 1982 state loan used to finance the hotel.

Quinn said he does not believe Baize's pledge that, if elected, he would separate himself from a decision on whether to allow restructuring of the troubled Eastport Plaza Holiday Inn, in which Fears is a partner.

The restructuring of the hotel — originally a Hilton hotel — is the second in two years sought by Fears, a former Granite City resident.

Quinn, speaking from Chicago, said Baize could not objectively assign an independent panel to consider refinancing a $17 million loan owed to the state for the facility.

Quinn posted a $250-per-person fund raise for Baize on Sept. 5. Fears also is a partner in an electronic paging company owned by Baize and his consultant between December 1989 and April 1990, Baize acknowledged in a telephone interview Wednesday.

At the Belleville campus, enrollment has increased from 8,438 students in 1986 to 9,238.

At Granite City, 2,796 students are enrolled this semester, as compared to 2,425 in fall 1989, Cipf said.

The increased enrollments have affected other areas of the college, including child-sitting services, Cipf said. Offered at the Belleville and Granite City campuses, the service is now operating at maximum level, he said.

College officials hope to start a similar service at the Red Bud campus in the near future.

Cipf said the total number of credit hours at the three BAC campuses also has risen dramatically. In fall 1989, 89,412 in fall 1989 to 98,138 this semester.

Reservists can return to old jobs

Military reservists called to active duty have the right to return to their old jobs if they meet certain requirements, according to a U.S. Labor Department official.

There are four requirements, contained in the veterans' Reemployment Rights (VRR) law, according to Thomas E. Collins III, assistant secretary of labor for veterans' employment and training. Returning reservists must:

- have held an "other temporary" civilian job but not necessarily a "permanent" job
- leave the civilian job to go on active duty
- receive a certificate evidencing satisfactory service, and
- apply for reemployment with the pre-service employer within 31 days.

"A person meeting these requirements is entitled to their pre-service position or an equivalent job," Collins said.

"The returning service man or woman does not get back onto the seniority ladder where he or she left it, but at the point that would have been reached without the interruption for military service."

The VRR law, in effect since 1940, applies to those who leave their jobs for voluntary or involuntary military service, in war and peace, Collins explained.

The Veterans' Employment and Training Service (VETS) in the Labor Department assists reservists and National Guard members, as well as others who leave military service, in enforcing their reemployment rights.

"I am confident," Collins said, "that the vast majority of employers will recognize the urgency of the present situation and will be supportive of their employees who return to military duty whether voluntarily or involuntarily."

"An employer or employee having questions about the VRR law should look for the local VETS representative under 'Labor Department' in the government pages of the telephone directory or call the VETS National Office, (202) 523-8611."

Those who leave civilian jobs for active duty are not required to request a leave of absence or even to notify employers that military service is the reason for leaving, although Collins encouraged anyone called to active duty to give his or her employer as much information as possible.

Different rules apply to reservists and National Guard members called to duty for training. They must request a leave of absence. However, this is really just a notice, not a request, because the employer cannot deny it.

Warriors humble Cahokia

By Mike Kelly
Staff writer

CAHOKIA — The soccer Warriors continued their winning ways on Thursday by blasting Cahokia 6-0.

Granite City (6-2) decided the issue by scoring five times in the first half. Jason Scrum, a player coach Gene Baker feels could tremendously help his team down the stretch this season, provided the backbone of the attack by registering the hat trick.

"Jason has some flaws on defense, but he also possesses some beautiful skills on the offensive end of the field," Baker said. "I was very happy to see him get on the scoreboard today because he needed a little boost of confidence. Hopefully, Jason can build some momentum on this effort."

The contest turned into a scrimmage by the midpoint of the second quarter. Scrum's first period goals gave Granite City all the room it needed to notch yet another victory on its belt.

Following his team's offensive outburst in the first half, Baker mainly played the reserves, while the junior varsity team played the entire fourth quarter.

"A game like this is good for our program because it allows me to play a lot of younger kids, who don't see a lot of playing time during the regular season," Baker said. "We can throw these kids into the fire and see how they perform under game conditions."

The game also gave Baker an opportunity to rest his starters, while giving those nursing injuries another day to fully recuperate.

"We've had to walk through our injuries during the early season," Baker said. "But the younger kids have really come through for us in this time of need. Many of them have been forced to grow up in a hurry. We rested 12 to 13 players today, but the playing time the younger players have received in the early season showed up today in a big way."

"What can you say?" Cahokia coach Craig Garin asked. "They've got a great program at Granite City, and no matter who they put on the field they're going to give you one heck of a test. Their skills are the key to their superiority. Their people do a nice job of controlling the ball while establishing field position."

For the most part, Cahokia gave Granite City a run for its money early in the game. The Comanches (2-7), while being forced to play in a defense shell for the better part of the contest, made the Warriors earn their goals.

Granite City's first goal came off a scrapple in front of the net, following a rush by David Partney on the left wing. Partney somehow split the defense and fired a shot that went off the near post, but before the Comanches could regroup defensively, Scrum came charging in from the right side and knocked in a rebound for the first tally of the game.

It became 2-0 at 15:16 of the opening stanza, when Scrum scored his second goal of the game off another scramble in front of the net. Cahokia, despite its shortcomings, was still in the

Warriors win fourth straight; 21-10 over Kahoks

By Dave Wilhelm
Staff writer

After scoring 10 points on their first two possessions Friday night against Granite City, the Kahoks were in a dream world.

But it was the Warriors who woke up, and CHS' dream soon turned into a nightmare in a 21-10 loss at Kahok Stadium.

"I'm disappointed because we had them down 10-0 last year," said CHS coach Bob Hollingshead. "We came out and dominated the first quarter and a half. That kickoff return turned it around."

A 48-yard pass from quarterback Curt Forcha to Jack Lamb highlighted an 88-yard drive that gave CHS a 10-0 lead with 7:47 remaining in the first half, but Granite City's Mike Vaughn returned the ensuing kickoff 68 yards to the CHS 23.

Five plays later, Vaughn ran seven yards up the middle for a touchdown, and it was all Granite City from that point. The win improved the Warriors, to 4-0 going into Friday's game against unbeaten East St. Louis.

"We're just trying to get respectability," said Warriors coach Tom Wyrostek. "I'm real proud of these young men. I've never had a group work any harder than this one. They'd run through a brick wall if they had to."

The Kahoks (1-3) turned in an impressive drive to start the game, using 15 consecutive running plays to move from their 23 to Granite City's 10. The drive stalled there, but Steve Gussong's 27-yard field goal put CHS up 3-0 with 3:27 remaining in the first quarter.

A Granite City punt and a penalty pinned CHS back on its 6, but Gary Wongler picked up 31 yards on four carries to spark a Kahok drive to the Warriors 48.

That's when Forcha found Lamb open on the left sideline. His pass was tipped by a Granite City defender, but Lamb came down with it and sprinted into the end zone.

MIKE VAUGHN scored a touchdown as the Warriors improved their record to 4-0 by beating Collinsville on Friday.

Vaughn's touchdown cut into the lead, but the Kahoks, once again, marched deep into Granite City territory. But Gussong's 29-yard field goal attempt after a mishandled snap was no good, but the half ended with CHS still on top.

Quarterback Bob Thomas' 61-yard pass to a wide-open Mike Nordstrom early in the third quarter helped the Warriors to a 14-10 lead.

On its next possession, Granite City drove to the Kahoks' 3, but Larry Curry fumbled and CHS' John Kane recovered the ball on the 1. On the next play, however, the snap went through Forcha's legs and Mark Cotter fell on the ball in the end zone for Granite City's final touchdown at 2:59 in the third quarter.

"Like I told the kids after the game, there's nothing to be disappointed in how they played," said Hollingshead. "It was just the final outcome."

"Gary Wongler (107 yards, 105 in first half) played super. He goes hard all the time. He's just got a little tired in the second half."

CHS had 161 yards rushing in the first half, but managed just eight in the final 24 minutes.

Last week, we didn't generate much offense," said Hollingshead. "Tonight we came out and trapped the heck out of them. (Later) we were trying to run the option and get outside because I thought their linebackers would start stacking the middle."

The Warriors will host the East St. Louis Flyers on Friday.

Trojans come up short again

By Mike Blackshere
Journal correspondent

MADISON — It has been a season where not much has gone right for Madison or Breese Central. These two winless teams met Friday night, both knowing that someone would have to find a way to win a game.

As it turned out, the Central Cougars did find a way to win 8-0, but Madison had to show them the right directions.

Madison suffered a major setback hours before they stepped onto the field. Starting Junior Quarterback Cernyn Thomas was held out of the game because of a discipline problem just before school was dismissed Friday afternoon. His replacement, Freshman Jason Jones, didn't know he was to start until he arrived at school just prior to the game.

If Madison Trojan coach Don Smith had wondered what else could go wrong this season, this was the answer. He had to give a freshman his first varsity start at quarterback without even having a practice to work him into the offense.

"Jason did a great job, but we had to run the freshman offense because that is really all that he is familiar with," Coach Smith lamented. "That limited us to about a third of our varsity offense. I don't want to sound like I'm condoning misconduct, but the loss of Thomas hurt the whole team and technically he was able to play. He wasn't expelled, so he is eligible under IHSA rules, but he wasn't able to play because of a Madison High School policy. It just is a shame that it ends up punishing the whole team."

It was an especially bitter turn of events because this was a game that Madison not only needed to win, but expected to win. But something else went wrong and now the Trojans are 0-3.

Neither team was able to score in the first quarter. Both teams played it very close to the vest, sticking with mostly straight-ahead running plays.

Madison threatened on their first possession of the game. After starting at their own 24 yard line, ten plays later they found themselves fourth and one at the Central 16. However, Central (1-3) stiffened and stopped the Trojans just inches short of a first down.

Momentum switched as the Cougars drove 65 yards to the Madison 20 yard line. There Madison senior Federico Walker

Cougar defense force, a Trojan punt. On the other possession the Trojans took over first-and-ten at their own 10 yard line with only 2:07 left in the game. After being unable to connect on a last gasp bomb attempt, the Trojans turned the ball over to the Cougars on downs at the Madison 14 to set up the only touchdown of the game.

Four plays later, Tebbe ran it in from the one yard out to notch the game's final score.

Trojan coach Don Smith is trying to stay optimistic.

"Both James Wellmaker and Tony Treadway ran well for us tonight," Smith said. "We've got a very young team with several freshmen starting; I just hope they don't get discouraged."

stripped Cougar fullback Jeremy Tebbe of the ball to squeeze the threat.

However, the Trojans were faced with a fourth-and-seven at their own 14. Madison set to punt, but the snap sailed over the punter's head into the end zone. Tony Treadway recovered the ball for the Trojans, but was tackled for a safety.

Leading 2-0 with 8:26 left in the first half, it was all the scoring Central would need to do.

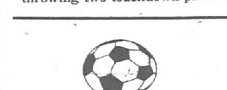

"It is an old cliché, but especially in a game like this, the team that makes the fewest mistakes will win," Cougar coach Jim Falconio said after the game. "Mistakes killed us last week, so we just wanted to hang onto the ball and bang away on offense. They are a big play type of offense, so we just wanted to take the ball out of their hands as long as possible."

Madison moved the ball fairly effectively in the second half, but the Trojans were the own worst enemy fumbling away three of their five possessions in that half.

Only one possession did the NOTES: Madison is home again next Friday night when they will host Dupu. The Tigers demolished Carlyle 34-8 on Friday night. Quarterback Josh Markert ignited the blow out by scoring a touchdown, running for a two-point conversion and throwing two touchdown passes.

game until the Warriors took a 5-0 lead at the 33:28 mark of the first half. After that, the Comanches were just trying to keep the game respectable.

"Cahokia is much more improved over last year," Baker said. "Their skills are a little better and their players were well-conditioned. They gave us a game early, but our depth just wore them down."

Cahokia only managed one shot on goal — that came in the second period when Hector Gonzalez took a shot from the far corner that was easily handled by goalkeeper Brian Cholevik, one of four keepers used by Baker that afternoon.

But one must ask: What could Cahokia, a program looking to upgrade its standing in soccer, get out of playing a powerhouse like Granite City?

"Playing Granite City gives our kids an idea of what it's like to face some of the best soccer players in Southern Illinois," Garin said. "Sure, we're not expected to win the game, but if we can only lose by two or three goals, or keep (Granite City) scoreless for a half, it can help the confidence of our kids, while giving us a few points at the regional seeding meeting."

But I was proud of our effort today. The kids gave Granite City a tussle in the early going, but once they went up by four goals, it seemed to tip our energy. We've come from behind before, but the kids knew coming back against Granite City was almost impossible."

NOTES: The Warriors traveled to Quincy-Notre Dame for an 11:00 a.m. game on Saturday. Baker was expecting the return of Larry Strader (knee) and Dan Terrell (high injury) in that game. Details of that contest will appear in Wednesday's Journal.

Netters blank East St. Louis

By Brian Henry
Journal correspondent

GRANITE CITY — The Warriors tennis team capped their record to 5-3 overall; 2-2 in the Southwestern Conference on Wednesday as they swept past East St. Louis 7-0.

Warriors coach Allen Lobdell switched his lineup around against the winless Flyers. Nikki Petrillo was moved to No. 1 singles for the first time this season, while Kristi Holsinger, Granite City's top seed, and Hollie Taylor teamed up at No. 1 doubles.

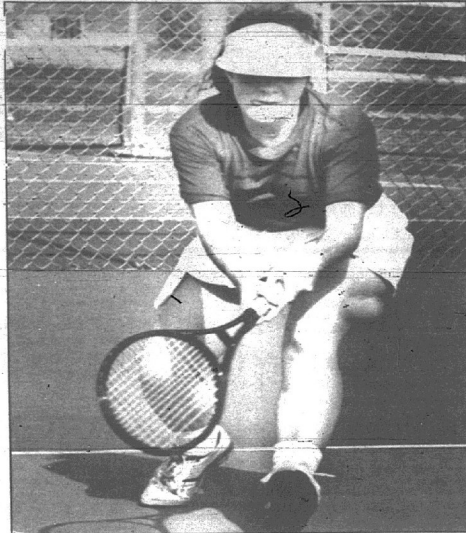

The moves by Lobdell produced huge dividends as the Warriors completely dominated the match from start to finish.

In singles play, Petrillo glided past Valencia Fox in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, while the No. 2 seed, Addie Lenzi, rolled by Michelle Johnson of the Flyers in straight sets, 6-0, 6-0. The third seed, Amy Isenburg, had an equally easy time beating Antonette Bean 6-0, 6-0, and Jennifer Hitt, the fourth seed, finished off the sweep in singles play by knocking off Alena Berry 6-2, 6-0.

Holsinger and Taylor were victorious in their first match as doubles partners, beating the Flyerette tandem of Fox and Bean. Tara Wyatt and Nicole Zelenka were 6-2, 6-1 winners over Johnson and Berry, while the No. 3 doubles team of Missy Simmons and Jody Forister beat Tiphany Holton and Brenda Duff 6-2, 6-0.

The Warriors traveled to Bethalto on Saturday and played in the Civic Memorial Invitational. Details of that match will appear in Wednesday's Journal.

NOTES: The golf team continued its mastery by winning a triangular meet against Mascoutah and Civic Memorial on Thursday. The Warriors (13-5) bested the field with a score of 10 strokes ahead of second place Mascoutah (161) and 17 shots in front of Civic Memorial (168). It was the second time this season that the Warriors had four golfers shoot under 40. Ryan Mueller was the low man with a 36, Joe Brewer and Gabe Mitchell each fired a 38, while Bill McCormick had a 39. And the volleyball team won its first game of the year knocking off Alton 15-0, 12-15, 15-4 on Thursday.

NIKKI PETRILLO made a nice transition moving to the No. 1 single spot by posting a straight set victory against Valencia Fox of the Flyers.
